Swollen Clands, Scrofula Sores, Hip Disease, Bolls, Pimples, Erup-tions Tell the Story - Dreadful Consequences of Impure Blood.

Certainly scrofuls, if anything, may be called the advertisement of foul blood. It is the scourge of the world — offensive, painful, debilitating, stubborn. Outward applications do not cure. Emollients may palliate, they cannot abolish the evil. There is one sure way out, and that is to eliminate the taint from the blood. For this purpose Hood's Sarsaparilla is absolutely without an equal.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofulous humor and impure blood and am now almost entirely cured of the eruptions with which I have been afflicted for the past year. My face, chest and back were badly broken out." FRED B. ORD-WAY, Woodstock, Vt.

MCKINLEY AT CHAMPLAIN

Speaks Before the Summer School of Catholics.

Greeted With Cheers From Thousands - Em phasizes Many Persons Displaying Flags -Triumphant Peace.

Plattsburg, N. Y., Aug. 15 .-President McKinley, accompanied by Private Secretary Cortelyou, eft the Hotel Champtain this morning at a few minutes past 11 o'clock and was driven down to the auditorium on the grounds of the Catholic summer school of America, at Cliff Haves, on Lake Champlain. Rev. M. J. Lavelle, president of the Catholic summer school, in-troduced President McKinley. Father Lavelle's speech was fre-quently interrupted by hearty applause and when during the course of his remarks he predicted that the "many millions of people recently brought under our protection would make American citizens as loyal, as sturdy and as true as those who are here today," the addience cheered en thusiastically.

As President McKinley rose the audience cheered, waved handkerchiefs and parasols until sist. He had not intended to speak. In fact, this is the first EDWARD POLLITZ & Co invitation to appear in public that he has accepted since he arrived at the hotel. He said: "I had not intended to say a word, but I cannot sit in silence in the presence of this splendid demonstration of your good will and patriotism. Whatever the Government of the United States has been able to accomplish since I last met you here has been because the hearts of the people have been with the Gov-ernment of the United States Our patriotism is neither sectional nor sectarian. We may differ in our political and religious beliefs, but we are united for the country. Loyalty to the Government is our national creed. We follow, all of us, one flag. It symbolizes our purposes and our aspirations; it represents what we believe and what we mean to maintain, and wherever it floats it is the flag of the free, the hope of the oppres

ried to a triumphant peace. "We have more flags here than we ever had before. They are in evidence everywhere. I saw them carried by the little ones on your lawn, and as long as they carry these flags in their little hands there will be patriotism in their hearts. The flag now floats from the homes of the billions, even from our places of worship; it is seen from our schools, from the shops, the factories, the mining Queen Hotel. towns, and it waves the distant outof the pioneer in the distant outpost and on the lumberman's but towns, and it waves from the camp in the dense forest. It is found Ocean View Saloon, in the dense forest. It is found the home of the humblest toiler and what it represents is dear to his heart. R bellion may delay, but it can never defeat its blessed mission of liberty and humanity.'

sed, and wherever it is assailed, with any sacrifice it will be car-

The President spoke slowly and deliberately in a moderate but earnest tone. Only once did he raise his voice, when he said that will be carried to a triumphent peace." The cheering which interrupted his speech at this point fairly shook the roof and a Member of Hawaillan Stock Exchange. fairly shook the roof and he was anable to make himself heard for nearly a minute.
